NEW YORK.

AUGUST 10th, 1857.

It has been a matter of considerable dispute whether the method of expressing our ideas by visible symbols called letters be really a human invention; or whether we ought to attribute an art so exceedingly useful to an immediate revelation from the Deity.—Encyclopædia Britannica.

N.B.—Prompt orders are necessary to secure the first selection of Books from this Catalogue.

After you have perused this Catalogue, you will confer a favor on the Publisher by passing it to some Book-buying friend.
